

CBM Fundraiser Celebrates Opening Week

Posted April 9, 2009

Thank you to everyone who attended Tuesday's fundraiser. Former Chicago American Giant Al Spearman, Cubs super fan Ronnie 'Woo' 'Woo' Wickers, author and baseball historian John Freyer, SABR member and baseball historian Rich Smiley and CBM founder and president David Fletcher were in attendance.

Nearly everyone who came out to the Jefferson Tap & Grille for the event went home with a prize, including our special edition t-shirts honoring the Chicago Baseball Museum's inaugural event celebrating baseball's opening week.

Special thanks, once again, to Keefe, Campbell & Associates for throwing the fundraiser on our behalf and to G.A.F.Y. for donating the t-shirts.

SEE PHOTOS ON FOLLOWING PAGE...

Al Spearman, former player for the Chicago American Giants of the Negro National League.

One of many autographed baseballs available for the raffle drawing.

Amber Buchanan and Dr. Fletcher draw for raffle prizes.